UW-Eau Claire's Faber 2011 Scholar-Athlete Winner

March 3, 2011

UW-Eau Claire senior forward and team captain Kristin Faber has been named the 2011 Women's Scholar-Athlete Award winner, Northern Collegiate Hockey Association Commissioner Bill Kronschnabel announced today. Faber, who made the All-NCHA team for the second straight season, also earned the 2011 NCHA Player of the Year Award - the first time a student-athlete has earned Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete in the same year. She earned NCHA Player of the Week honors three times during her career. This is the second straight season Faber has made the NCHA All-Academic Team.

Faber is from Austin, Minnesota. Her major is Physical Education, in which she has earned a 3.50 overall grade point average. On the ice this season Faber posted 20 goals and 10 assists for 30 points. She lead the NCHA in goals scored (setting a new UWEC school record), and ranked second in the conference in total points. Faber served as team captain this season and was an alternate captain of the Blugolds for the 2009-2010 season.

A four-time letter winner, Faber has made time to be very active in volunteer programs in the community. She currently is involved in more than a half dozen youth programs, ranging from walking kids to school to coaching Special Olympics Athletes.
